Applications will be open until May 20, 2019 at midnight Eastern Standard Time.

Printed Matter's NY Art Book Fair (NYABF) is the leading international gathering for the distribution of artists' books, celebrating the full breadth of the art publishing community. Free and open to the public, NYABF 2018 hosted 365 exhibitors from around the world featuring a wide variety of works – from zines and artists' books to rare and out of print publications, and contemporary art editions. The Fair draws more than 35,000 individuals including book lovers, collectors, artists, and art world professionals each year.

Printed Matter's Art Book Fairs are art-book-publishing focused. When filling out the exhibitor application, please be specific and illustrate how the proposed booth or project space will feature artists' books, catalogs, monographs, periodicals, zines, or related printed material. Applicants are required to submit images of recent publication projects and/or presentations. Exhibitors should not foreground editions, prints, apparel, or original artwork.

Each year, Printed Matter receives nearly 1,000 applications for its NY Art Book Fair. Due to this high volume of submissions, exhibitors will be notified on a rolling basis regarding the status of their application. We appreciate your patience. Submission of an application does not guarantee participation. Pricing for participation is tiered. Placement preference will be noted, but due to space limitations, exhibitors may be offered placement that differs from their stated preference.

Held at MoMA PS1 in Long Island City, NY over three days (plus Opening Night), NYABF 2019 will welcome hundreds of exhibitors from around the world, including a broad range of artists and collectives, small presses, institutions, galleries, antiquarian booksellers, and distributors. With a commitment to diversity and representation, the event will serve as a meeting place for an extended community of publishers and book enthusiasts, as well as a site for dialog and exchange around all facets of arts publishing.

Thank you for applying to Printed Matter's 2019 NY Art Book Fair.

We look forward to reviewing your application!
