

View this email in your browser

Applying for federal coronavirus relief as a filmmaker

HOSTED BY:

Friday, April 3rd, is the first day that small businesses can apply for federally-funded relief programs recently passed by Congress (Small Business Administration). Experts have advised that all small businesses (regardless of being an LLC, S-Corp, sole proprietor, or independent contractor) should apply as soon as possible due to potential demand. These funds are available to businesses as small as one person! The webinar will also provide resources about applying for unemployment benefits as a freelancer.

Firelight Media, IDA, and ITVS invite you to an hour-long webinar to learn the basics of applying for the various SBA programs.

All webinars will feature presentations by Cornerstone Government Affairs, a bipartisan consulting firm, specializing in federal and state government relations and business advisory services.

How to Register:

Please fill out this form and include your email address. The link to the Zoom meeting will be emailed to you as soon as it is available.

Feel free to review guidelines from Cornerstone in advance of the call.

Each Zoom webinar can accommodate up to 3,000 participants. Attendance is first-come, first-served. The calls will be recorded and shared publicly. The link to video will be posted on each of the partner organization’s websites for those who are not able to attend live.

When:

Friday, April 3rd, 9am-10am ET

Friday, April 3rd, 12pm - 1pm ET (ASL interpretation available for this session)

Monday, April 6th, 3 pm - 4 pm ET

Tues, April 7th, 12pm - 1pm ET

Live captioning is available for all sessions.

Copyright © 2020 ITVS, All rights reserved.

Our mailing address is:
1435 Folsom Street, San Francisco, CA 94103

If you'd rather not receive this type of email from us, please take a moment to update your subscription preferences.

update subscription preferences

unsubscribe from this list